

RANDOLPH

Dedication of Masonic Hall Was a Marked Success.

The Masonic meeting here on Friday night was one of the largest in several years, the occasion being the dedication of the new Masonic hall. There were many grand officers present, among whom were M. W. George I. Whitney, Grand Master R. W. Edwin F. Greene, Grand Junior Warden H. H. Ross, Grand Secretary Aaron H. Groat, Grand Lecturer Rev. W. J. Ballou, G. C. Henry L. Ballou, D. G. M. Stanley Brownell, G. J. S. Arthur Bigelow G. S. and others. The dedication ceremonies took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the speakers for this were George I. Whitney, grand master for the grand lodge; Louise S. Brigham, D. G. M. for the ninth district and John C. Sherburne for Phoenix lodge, No. 28. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon a lodge of master Masons opened Phoenix lodge in form, and the first session of the M. M. degree was conferred by Jackson lodge, No. 60 Winfred H. Ford, W. M. Lodge was then called from labor to refreshment, until 7:15. At the appointed time, the lodge was called from recreation to labor and the reception of the grand officers took place. This was followed by the second session of the M. M. degree by Mystic Star lodge, No. 97, Frank S. Dewey W. M. Review of the work followed by Aaron H. Groat, grand lecturer. Addresses by G. I. Whitney, H. H. Ross, Edwin H. Greene and others followed. Five members now living who participated in the dedicatory exercises of the old hall were paid homage as extended greetings. Brother Harris Buss, '60, Brother G. O. Webster, '68, Brother Nelson Boyden, '76, Brother Henry S. Booth, '77 and Brother James W. Fargo, '77. It was an occasion long to be remembered. Refreshments were served at the banquet at 8 o'clock, the ladies of the chapter furnishing the same and officiating at the time.

Mrs. Arthur Symmes of Boston, who has been for the last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allis, left Saturday for her home.

J. S. Butler, who has been passing several weeks here with his daughter, Mrs. R. H. Moore, left Saturday for Lyndonville, where he is to pass a few weeks.

Mrs. Mudgett, who has been in Pomfret for a few days, returned to her home on Sunday, her son, Mark Mudgett, coming with her by auto.

Miss Doris Stockwell has returned from a few days' visit in Springfield, Mass., and is again in the store with her father.

An Exchange of Language.

A tourist was watching a porter as he swept the porch of a Florida hotel. The morning was rather warm and clouds were gathering in the sky.

"Sambo," said the tourist, "don't you think there is an excessive amount of humidity in the atmosphere to-day?"

"What's dat?" inquired the porter, wiping the perspiration from his face.

"I was merely extending an invitation to learn if you thought it was going to rain," answered the tourist.

"Well, I never," said the porter sadly. "Does you reckon I would be wastin' my time pushin' dis broom if I had sense enuff to prognosticate de precipitation?"—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegram.

Hasn't the Brains.

"Did Reggie ever work?"

"Work? Why Reggie never even labored under a delusion."—Boston Transcript.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of

WATERBURY

Herbert Johnson Died Saturday of Diabetes—Funeral Tuesday.

Saturday, a little before noon, word came that Herbert Johnson had passed away at the Heaton hospital of diabetes. This was a great shock, as many did not know the seriousness of his illness.

Herbert Johnson was born in Fayston 45 years ago, the son of Stephen and Janette (Boyes) Johnson. He was educated in the public schools and came here to the hospital to work. Here 20 years ago he married Helen Howard, who survives him with one son, Howard Johnson. He also leaves two brothers, Merton Johnson of Duxbury and Walter Johnson of New Hampshire.

For 15 years Mr. Johnson has been at the Waterbury hospital, and familiarly known as "Chief" Johnson. He was faithful to his work and trusted by all. He was a member of Winooski lodge, F. & A. M., but had seen longer service in the Odd Fellows lodge, being a member of Mentor lodge, Alhambra encampment and Emerald Rebekah lodge.

The funeral will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, burial under ritual work of Mentor lodge. Members of Mentor lodge and Emerald Rebekah lodge are asked to meet early at the house.

Many from Out of Town Attended Mrs. Julia Seabury's Funeral Friday.

Friday afternoon services for Mrs. Julia Seabury were held at her late home. Her pastor, Rev. John C. Prince, spoke most comforting words and paid a great tribute to her character, her faithfulness to the church and all lines of Christian work. He read many passages and selections from the Bible which had been her constant companion, all of which testified to the worth of a life whose influence would remain and whose sympathy to all in every condition was well known. Floral tributes were very beautiful.

Burial was in the family lot in the village cemetery, the hearse being B. R. Demeritt, W. B. Clark, C. D. Swasey and Dr. G. S. Bidwell.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Gilligan of Barnet, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Pocock of Beebe Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jeslin and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Joslyn of Montpelier; Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ralph, Mrs. Lincoln Morse of Brookfield; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ralph of Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Perry and Chester Simons of Stowe and Mr. and Mrs. Irving LeBaron of Morrisville.

Julia Blise was born in Rochester, 70 years ago a week from yesterday, the daughter of Elijah and Prudence (Arnold) Blise. Thirty-six years ago last January she was married to Edwin T. Seabury and came here to live. During this time her home has been a haven to many and tender care has been given those who were ill. In poor health herself for the past year and a half, it has been the purpose of the family to do for her also those kindly acts which she had so much used.

She is survived by the three to whom she has with all devotion and care been a mother, William H. Seabury, Miss Mae Seabury and Miss Alice Seabury, also one step-sister in Washington, nieces, friends and neighbors who, in their sorrow, realize it is the time of her victory. The congregational church and all her organizations feel keenly the going of one who was always faithful and in every way shed peace and devotion. For 20 years the picnic of the ladies' union had been an annual event at the Seabury home and was looked upon as a reunion for all the church people. No one would feel that she has gone because the strength of her influence will remain.

Home and Farm Bureau Meeting Largely Attended and Very Helpful.

The ladies began to arrive early in the forenoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Shonio last Thursday for the home and farm bureau meeting. Miss Mildred Boyce, county home demonstrator, was present and gave the ladies much aid in millinery problems and remodeling of clothes. This project has been most interesting and helpful. Work for the coming year was discussed and the vote was for "Nutrition." This will be the work for afternoons, but the subjects already considered may have time before the dinner hour and some special ones may be taken like "Caring of Chairs." Miss Ruth Johnson, boys' and girls' club leader for the county, also brought up her work, which will probably be along the line of cooking and canning. A fine lunch was served at noon.

In the afternoon County Agent Carleton and Kenneth Kirk arrived. Some committee work was done and other gentlemen came in time for the harvest supper, which was served until 8 o'clock. Sixty people were served through the day and all were loud in their praise of the hospitality shown.

In the evening, the pictures which are sent out from the office of the county farm bureau were shown and different farm problems discussed. Mr. Kirk speaking also of the benefits the farmer has received from the work of the county agent and all farm organizations, and Mr. Carleton of the survey as taken at Randolph. Table talk at supper-time was most emphatic that the farmer was cultivating, had to do so and that the taxation matter was one causing real distress.

The meetings throughout the day were of real value and to show their community interest and real helpfulness the ladies of the home bureau voted to serve lunch in the town hall on the day of the November elections. The Duxbury home bureau is one of the live ones of the county.

Because of her reported illness, Mrs. Shonio was presented a large floral box, the contents of which were very for table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Shonio spent the end of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sanborn in East Orange.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker Friday at the Heaton hospital.

Mrs. Harriett Hayden, who has been carrying for Mrs. Seabury, has returned to her home in Barre.

A telegram received yesterday tells of the accident in North Carolina to the Waterbury party who left for Florida a few days ago. It was reported that R. J. Edwards suffered somewhat from the accident and that F. C. Luce had a broken shoulder. Mrs. Luce and Mrs. Edwards left yesterday.

Use Both.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away and the fruit of industry the sheriff.—Boston Transcript.

STOWE

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barrows observed the 25th anniversary of their marriage at their home Friday evening. Their four children, Willis M., Ruby French, Alice and Roy, were present; also Mrs. W. A. Morse of Waterbury and Mrs. Barrows' mother, Mrs. Emma Barrows of Stowe. Elmer Barrows and Julia Morse were married Oct. 20, 1897, at Coventry by Rev. R. W. Collins, who now lives in Moscow. They have always made their home in Stowe. They received many gifts and a purse of money. The evening was spent in a social way; music and dancing were enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served. Among those from out of town present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morse and son, Hugh, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Graves and daughters, Doris and Mona, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morse, Mrs. Nellie Barrows and son, Elliott, Will Pierce and son, Franklin and Maud Harris of Waterbury.

About forty-five neighbors and friends gave Mr. and Mrs. Foster Van Dusen a surprise farewell party at their home on west hill Friday evening. The evening was spent in playing games and cards. Refreshments of candy, doughnuts, cake and coffee were served. The Van Dusen family to spend the winter in Morrisville.

The remains of John Houston Lyon of East Calais, formerly of Stowe, were brought here from Montpelier for burial in the West Branch cemetery Saturday. The deceased and surviving son, Clinton Lyon, have been employed in the lumber business by W. M. Barnes at different intervals for many years.

Mrs. Cornelia McCuen has returned from Chester, where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barrows.

Gordon Oakes, cow tester in the Wolcott-Greenboro district, passed the week end at his home in Stowe.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hanley and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gowin of Essex County and H. A. Ring and family of Morrisville were recent visitors at Frank McCarthy's.

Schools in town were closed Friday afternoon. Superintendent Learned Smith met the teachers at the village schoolhouse and outlined the work.

F. S. Austin, while putting apples into the cellar last week, found apples in one of the racks that were put in there last year at this time. They were firm and in good condition and had retained their flavor.

The young people enjoyed an informal dance at the banquet hall Friday evening.

LeRoy Herron of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Thomas Osmond, at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. R. Straw.

Misses Alice Barrows and Alice Nutting, who motored to Montpelier Saturday, were accompanied by the former's sister, Mrs. Ruby French, and two children on their return to Plainfield, after passing a week in Stowe.

A Cheaper Way.

Unending are the anecdotes of Scotch thrift and closeness. A Scot and an Irishman going past a shop saw a very pretty girl inside and the Irishman said, "Sure, Sandy, she's the fairest colleen me eyes ever rested on. It's myself that'll go in and buy something and perhaps she'll have a smile for me."

"Toots, mon, ye needna spend a bawbee," answered Sandy. "All ye has to do is to ask her for the change of a shilling."—Boston Transcript.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

RYZON

BAKING POWDER

you use less

"FORWARD, MARCH!"

The happiest people are those who, in whatever sphere of life, continue to go forward.

The inventor is happy so long as he can overcome new obstacles, devise new mechanisms, go forward.

The business man is happy when his business shows a healthy growth and a balance on the right side of the ledger. Everybody finds satisfaction in getting ahead financially—in being a little better off this year than last.

A growing savings account in The Montpelier Savings Bank and Trust Company, Montpelier, Vermont, will give you a feeling of satisfaction and will be worth to you all that it may cost in effort and sacrifice. Why not start now?

Showing Off.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.

Washington public library will be open Saturday afternoons and evenings, instead of Fridays, from this time on, beginning with Oct. 28.

He was in his first week at college, and when he went to the stationer's to buy a fountain pen he felt desirous that the young woman who waited on him should know that in spite of his youth he was no high school boy. When she handed him a sheet of paper he wrote on it, with many flourishes, in a large, bold hand, "Alma Mater, Alma Mater, eight or nine times."

The clerk watched him with a simple, and at last she spoke. "Why don't you let her try it herself," she suggested, "and then if it doesn't suit, of course, we'll charge it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Mrs. Batchelder and Miss Brackett from Raymond, N. H., are guests of Mrs. Lizzy Avery.

Mrs. V. W. Curtis was in South Royalton and Williamstown Friday afternoon to get their cousins, the Misses Wallace, who teach in those towns and who spent the week end with her.

Mrs. C. A. Simmons and little son, who have been guests of her brother and family in Windsor for a few days, returned home Friday.

Mrs. M. W. Chamberlin, who suffered a slight paralysis of the left side a week ago, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohannon were in South Royalton last Tuesday to visit his cousins, Mrs. Cora Barrows and Mrs. Della Goff.